

LORD MAYOR MAC SWINEY DIED EARLY THIS MORN

Crowd Prevented Street Speech

RECORD-BREAKING FAST OF SEVENTY-THREE DAYS IS ENDED BY DEATH: MILITARY READY FOR ANY CRISIS

SOCIALIST IS HOOTED DOWN SUNDAY NIGHT

George Koop Given Unpleasant Reception in Dixon.

George Koop, Socialist party candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was prevented from delivering an address at the corner of Hennipen avenue and First street Sunday evening by a crowd of between 200 and 300 men and boys for about two hours hooted down his every effort to make himself heard.

The candidate is said to have taken the affair in good nature, until the surging of the crowd forced him down the stairway of the Toy Shop, hurting his leg. It is reported, also, that he was struck in the head by an egg thrown by some anti-Socialist, but no confirmation of this could be obtained. A generous handful of unclean dough also is said to have found its mark and a number of ripe tomatoes filled the air for a time, it is reported.

Two weeks ago yesterday Koop was arrested on order of Mayor Smith when he attempted to deliver an address in Haymarket Park. The charge of disturbing the peace on Sunday, preferred against him by the city, was dismissed by Justice Hannekan, and Saturday the Socialist candidate was billed to make an address on the street, the circulars which billed the meeting appealing to the citizens of Dixon to heed the principals of free speech.

When Koop got ready to make his address he found a large crowd awaiting him, but as soon as he started to speak the crowd started hooting and yelling. Mr. Koop is reported to have tried to tell the crowd that he could stay there as long as they, but not even that challenge was permitted.

The candidate was refused lodging at one of the city's leading hotels; and altogether he found his visit to Dixon most unpleasant. No warrants have been issued and the police report no complaints have been registered with the department.

J. W. Franklin Died Early Last Evening

J. W. Franklin, for many years a resident of this city, passed away at the home of his son, Oliver Franklin at Jackson, Mich., early last evening, death resulting from a stroke of paralysis he suffered several days ago. The body will be brought to Dixon tomorrow, arriving at 1:11 p. m. and will be taken to the Jones chapel, where funeral services will be held at 1:30. Dixon camp, No. 56, Modern Woodmen of America will have charge of the services and burial will take place in Oakwood.

Search for Alleged Forger in This City

An alleged forger, known as John Haskell, was being sought for in Dixon today by Sterling authorities and alleged Sterling victims of his game, following the discovery that five checks, each for $42, said to have been cashed for the young man by as many Sterling merchants, were forgeries. An employee in one of the stores which was victimized is said to have seen Haskell in Dixon last evening, and he was here this morning to assist in the search for him.

ARTICLE TEN ISN'T HELD ESSENTIAL OR VITAL ACROSS SEAS

President of League of Nations Council is Authority.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Brussels, Oct. 25.—Leon Bourgeois, president of the council of the League of Nations, talking to American newspaper correspondents last night said that Article X of the covenant of the League of Nations is not considered by European statesmen as a vital and essential element of the covenant.

M. Bourgeois said he had been surprised that Article X had caused so much emotion in the United States. He stated that Article X could be eliminated without in any way modifying the effectiveness of the League of Nations.

"Article X," said M. Bourgeois, "is scarcely more than a moral background to the covenant. It is not considered so important by Europeans as by Americans. There is no really, no sanction or penalty in this article. All penalties provided for in the covenant in order to make the league's action effective are in other articles."

Mr. Bourgeois' statement was made in the course of an interview arranged for American correspondents by M. Cornet, principal press official of the League of Nations. After M. Bourgeois had withdrawn the question was raised among the American correspondents as to the effect of M. Bourgeois' utterance on the presidential election in the United States. It was thereupon mutually agreed to withhold the statement until M. Bourgeois could pass upon it as being issued with the fullest authority and approval.

Authorized Interview.

M. Bourgeois was seen this morning by Mr. Cornet, who then told the correspondents he had explained to M. Bourgeois the importance of the remarks and requested Mr. Bourgeois to say whether he intended him to be published in the United States. M. Bourgeois replied, said M. Cornet, that he understood the importance of what he was saying and was quite willing the interview should be printed.

MARINE BAND TO DRAW BIG CROWD HERE TOMORROW

Opening of Sale of Tickets Indicated Interest.

The opening at Rowland's drug store Saturday evening of the ticket sale for the United States Marine Band concert at Assembly Park Auditorium tomorrow evening indicates that the big hall will be filled to capacity if weather conditions are favorable. The plan of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce to put the concert on at popular prices gives the people of this vicinity an opportunity to hear the famous organization at about half what it is costing patrons in others cities—and the band played by 7,000 in LaSalle last week and to nearly 10,000 people in Rockford last evening.

The prices of 75 cents for adults, and 25 for children brings the concert within the means of everyone, and the free admission and parking features for automobiles will surely prove very popular.

A committee of business men today started decorating the big stage at the Auditorium for the concert so that everything will be in complete readiness for the appearance of the "President's Own."

To Heat Auditorium

The committee today arranged to install several salamanders in the hall early tomorrow morning to heat the big room so it will be thoroughly comfortable for all patrons no matter what sudden changes the weather may take.

Vandals Break in River Camp Houses

Camp houses along Rock river east of the city are being stripped of their equipment by vandals who have been busy for several days and have caused a small amount of loss by stealing equipment, but have no respect for property value. Camp Will Do, belonging to Deputy Sheriff Joe E. Miller, located near the Grand Detour bridge, was broken into the latter part of the week and about a hundred dollars worth of camp equipment stolen and carried away.

All 14 windows in the cabin were smashed and broken and the doors battered down. The vandals evidently selected such articles of camp equipment as met their fancy and those they did not carry away were thrown into the river.

MAYORESS NOT WITH HIM WHEN LONG FAST ENDS

Prison Physicians in Announcement Say "Heart Disease."

London, Oct. 25.—(By Associated Press.)—Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, died at Brixton prison, this city, at 5:40 this morning. His death followed a hunger strike of more than 73 days, eclipsing any in the annals of the medical world.

MacSwiney, who had been unconscious for several days, did not recover his faculties before he died. Father Dominic, his private chaplain, and his brother, John MacSwiney, were with him when the end came. Father Dominic was at the prison all night and did not leave until several hours after MacSwiney breathed his last. John MacSwiney and the chaplain, who had been waiting down stairs in the prison, were told by prison officials at 4:35 o'clock that they should go to the mayor's bedside, as they thought death was approaching. The brother asked for the privilege of communicating with other relatives who were not present, but the officials, it is said, refused him the use of the telephone.

After the prisoners' death, his brother and the chaplain were not permitted to leave Brixton prison until 6:15 o'clock. John MacSwiney immediately conveyed word to the widow of the Lord Mayor, who was staying at a West End hotel.

Mrs. MacSwiney accompanied by her parents and the Misses Annie and Mary MacSwiney, sisters of the Lord Mayor, arrived at Brixton prison at 9:30 o'clock.

Burial in Ireland.

It is understood arrangements are being made to take the body to Ireland for burial. News of MacSwiney's death had not become known in the district around Brixton prison until after 9 o'clock. The usual large contingent of police was on duty inside the prison grounds to prevent any demonstration, but outside and along the road leading to the main highway there were no unusual signs of activity. No civilians were waiting there, as they usually did in the early days of the Lord Mayor's hunger strike.

It is probable the inquest will be held at the prison today, after which the body will be turned over to relatives.

MacSwiney was unconscious for 36 hours before his death occurred, it is stated. Father Dominic, therefore, was unable to give him communion, but he administered extreme unction.

Cause Was Heart Failure.

The cause of MacSwiney's death was heart failure, according to a statement issued at the home office.

This statement is considered an indirect answer to the criticisms of Dr. Josiah Oldfield, the physician and publicist, who had declared it was wrong for the Lord Mayor's doctors to administer meat juice and brandy. He said brandy was a poison and that a man at the point of death was very susceptible to poison. Dr. Oldfield added that when a man fasted a long time the first food he could endure was fruit juice.

When one of the officials was asked today regarding Mrs. MacSwiney's absence from the bedside when death occurred he replied by saying the restrictions which were recently imposed upon the visits of relatives were urged by the attending physicians as vital to the prisoner's own interests.

Terence MacSwiney was 40 years old and was one of the most prominent Sinn Feiners. He started life as a draper's assistant but became a poet, author and a playwright before taking up politics seriously. Later he became violently anti-English.

Wedded Distiller's Daughter.

While in Wakefield jail, Yorkshire, in 1916, he met Muriel Murphy, daughter of a wealthy Cork distiller, who visited the jail, and shortly

GARRISON AT CORK IS ONE OF STRONGEST

Is Expected to Prevent Outbreak By Cork Residents.

Cork, Ireland, Oct. 25.—(By Associated Press.)—Feverish interest in possible developments caused by the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of this city, which occurred in Brixton prison, London, this morning, is mingled with the grief in which his death has plunged South Ireland. Although the people appear stirred the highest degree of bitterness, it is regarded as extremely improbable that there will be outbreaks of disorderly demonstration in this city.

It is expected, however, there will be a considerable extension and intensification of guerrilla warfare against the police and military forces, which, anticipating reprisals, are doubling their vigilance, especially in remote districts.

Strong Garrison Ready.

There is an exceptionally strong garrison here. It is equipped for any eventualities, has a number of tanks and armored cars and is ready for instant service. Military forces are so strong that it is considered improbable will be the fourth to be buried in this plot, the others being MacCurtain; Sheanus McQuirk, who was taken out of bed in his Galway home and shot, and Jeremiah McNesly, who participated in the Easter rising in Dublin in 1916.

These arrangements are contingent upon the possibility of governmental interference, which, however, is regarded as unlikely. The progress of the funeral party from Dublin to Cork will be marked by a series of services at all the populous centers en route. Final obsequies will be held in Cork cathedral and interment will be made in St. Fin Barr's cemetery in Cork. The grave in which MacSwiney will be buried is known as "Republican plot" which has been reserved for Irish Nationalist soldiers.

A friend of the MacSwiney family who accompanied Mrs. MacSwiney when she visited Brixton prison this morning said the Lord Mayor's telegram of Oct. 18 to the Cork hunger strikers with reference to the death of the hunger striker Michael Fitzgerald in Cork jail, in which he referred to Fitzgerald as having died for his country and joined the immortals, characterized the family's attitude.

"Mrs. MacSwiney and the Lord Mayor's sisters, Annie and Mary, who were not present when the end came, entered the cell, kissed the Mayor's cheek, knelt silently in prayer a few moments and then left," the friend said. "The Mayoress preserved the same stoical self-possession she has shown throughout the long ordeal."

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Grain Market Had Slump Near Close

Chicago, Oct. 25. — Indications of probable quick settlement of the British coal strike tended to strengthen the wheat market, absence however, of any signs of fresh exports was more or less a check on bullish sentiment. Trade was light. Opening prices, which varied from 1/4c off to 1c advance with Dec. 1.99 to 2.01 and March 1.93 to 1.94, were followed by moderate gains all around and then something of a reaction.

Weakness developed later in connection with announcement of big receipts at Omaha and assertions that wheat in Nebraska had been obtained as low as $1.50 a bushel. There was also an increase in the visible supply total. Prices closed unsettled at the same as Saturday's finish to 1c lower, with Dec. 1.99 1/2 to 1.99 3/4 and March 1.92 1/2 to 1.93.

Corn was firmer with wheat. After opening unchanged to 1/4c higher, including Dec. at 85 1/2 to 86 1/2, the market scored additional upturns and later underwent a slight reaction.

Grain reflected the strength of other crops, starting unchanged to 1/4c higher, Dec. 53 1/2 to 54 1/2; and keeping close to initial figures.

Weakness in the hog market had a depressing effect on provisions.

Subsequently, large receipts of corn led to downturn in price. The close was nervous 1 1/2c net lower to 1/4c advance, with Dec. 79 1/2 to 80.

HARDING GETS READY TO REST HIS CANDIDACY

Will Close Campaign in Four Addresses This Week.

Marion, O., Oct. 25.—Senator Harding began the last full week of the campaign with another day spent at his desk at work on the final public utterances with which he will rest his candidacy.

The speech to be delivered Saturday night at Columbus occupied the nominee's major attention, though it was said that some data still remained to be prepared for the three he will deliver during the week at Cleveland, Akron and Cincinnati.

At the close of the week, Mrs. Leake presented the Supreme Worthy High Priestess with a beautiful dresser scarf, a gift of Corinthian Shrine.

Mrs. Wheeler responded, thanking the Shrine for their gift and complimented the officers for their work of the evening.

Corinthian Shrine was organized last December and now has a membership of 440, members being present at this meeting from Rockville, Ashton, Franklin Drive, Sterling, Rock Falls, Ansony, Muldewille, Walnut and Mt. Morris, with visitors from Prophets-town, Freeport and Chicago.

BURKE DUFFY—

One of Autumn's prettiest weddings took place at St. Patrick's church, Wednesday afternoon when Catherine Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Duffy, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burke, of Amboy, Rev. Father Foley performed the ceremony. The couple were attended by Miss Margaret Burke, sister of the groom and John Fitzsimmons also a cousin of the groom. The bride was attired in a suit of brown velvet with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations and a prayer book. The maid of honor wore a suit of blue and carried a bouquet of carnations. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a trip to Chicago and Muskegon, Mich.

The bride is one of Dixon's popular young ladies and the groom a prosperous young farmer. After their return they will reside on the groom's father's farm near Amboy, where the groom has been farming since his return from the U. S. service overseas.

GREIG-KEEFER WEDDING—

William T. Greig, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Greig of 118 East Everett St., and Miss Frances Keefe of St. Paul, were married Saturday at Knoxville, Ill., where the young lady is attending school. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ketticamp at the M. E. parsonage.

Mr. Greig graduated at the Laurence, Michigan high school in 1919 and is now associated with his father in the contracting and building business.

The bride is the daughter of Doctors J. F. and J. R. Keefe of Sterling and is one of the most popular ladies of the younger set in that city and is well known in this city.

The Telegraph and their many friends in this city extend congratulations.

FOR COMING BRIDE—

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Moerschbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hoberg, Mrs. McGowan, Misses Ruth Carney, Marguerite Plein, Helen and Ethel Gorman and Messrs. Rush Bose, Roy Fitzsimmons and Sherwood Dixon entertained at the Fitzsimmons cottage up the river with a dinner Sunday after the American Legion-Camp Grant game in honor of William Loftus and Lucile Jones, who are to be married next month.

DEATH CHEATED HER FIGHT

New York—The tale of a woman who married to reform a man and was beaten by Death was told in Surrogate Court here by attorneys for Mrs. Rose Longman, suing to break the will of Samuel T. Longman. Mrs. Longman, who was Miss Hellman, married Longman, wealthy manager of a paint company here, one month before he died. He left her $5,000 in his will and the estate is estimated at $100,000. Mrs. Longman holds that she married Longman to save him from habits of drink and of drug. He was 52.

WHY POLITICS AFFECTS YOUR HOME

BY

MAUD WOOD PARK

(Chairman National League of Women Voters.)

VII. KEEPING THE COURTS OUT OF POLITICS.

Justice is not a matter of party, politics or policies. It is the quality of being just, of dealing rightly with others without partiality or partisanship. And those men who preside over our courts, state or federal, must, if they carry out their official oath, disassociate their acts upon the bench from all personal feeling, personal interest, personal gain.

In their hands lies the personal liberty, the good name, often the very lives of those who come before them. Upon their decisions rests the disposal of vast property interests, millions of dollars.

A judge interprets the laws which partisan law-makers enact. It is imperative, therefore, that our judges shall be men of unassailable character, of high courage, probity and honor—nonpartisan in office, since before them come men of all parties—and none.

Herein lies one essential reason for the League of Women Voters. Measures its members are working for most earnestly are not partisan measures. They are measures of justice that affect our whole nation, our whole citizenship. And justice cannot be partisan.

Longer than any other term of office are judgeships, on the assumption that the longer their experience, the more valuable they become to the state. Back of this, however, is another, deeper, more vital reason—to keep them out of the atmosphere of partisanship, of "give-and-take" trade and political advantage.

Political bias and prejudice do not make for justice. Everyone realizes this truth. In office, a judge should have no politics, know no politics, do no politics.

He is there to interpret the law, and to render just decisions without partisanship. You have an important responsibility if, in your state, judges are elected when you cast your ballot. Whether the process of the law insures justice and increases public security depends often more on the judge than on the letter of the law. Political parties or prejudiced interests should have no hand in the choosing of a judge. He should be chosen for his wisdom, his intelligence, his probity, his public spirit and his unbiased justice.

WOOD FOR PLANOS

Wood for pianos is kept in the seasoning process, as a rule, for 40 years before it is used.

Menu for Tomorrow.

BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes, cereal with top milk, buttered toast, orange marmalade, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Baked lima beans, brown bread, baked apples, sour cream cookies, tea.

DINNER—Rolled flank steak, mashed potatoes, baked squash, endive salad, orange charlotte, coffee.

My Own Recipes.

A flank steak usually weighs about two pounds. Make a plain bread stuffing as for fowl or make an oyster stuffing. A flank steak with an oyster stuffing is perfectly "all right" to serve for a company dinner of one or two friends.

BAKED LIMA BEANS.

1 cup dried lima beans.

PAPER RAINCOAT

4 pound salt pork.

2 carrots.

Soak beans two or three hours. Par-boil with ½ teaspoonful of soda. Put in a buttered baking dish a layer of beans and a layer of diced carrots. Cut the meat into strips and bury it in the vegetables. Add 1 teaspoonful of sugar to 1 cup of boiling water and pour over vegetables. Season with pepper and add water to cover. Bake two or three hours in a slow oven.

SOUR CREAM COOKIES.

2 cups sugar.

½ cup butter.

¼ cup lard.

3 eggs.

1 cup sour cream.

1 teaspoon soda.

½ teaspoon salt.

Nutmeg.

Flour to roll.

Cream shortening and sugar. Beat eggs well. Combine. Dissolve soda in cream. Add to first mixture. Add flour, as little as possible, to roll. Roll on a floured molding board and cut with cookie cutter. Bake in a quick oven.

Cook and the world eats with you. Don't cook and you starve alone.

Hunter's Gun Was Stolen Last Week

One day the latter part of last week Ward Miller and a friend spent a day a few miles north of Grand Detour fishing and hunting. It was too hot to hunt in the afternoon, so they left their car in the woods and went to the woods and went to the river fishing. In the evening when they returned to the car, ready to come home, Ward discovered that his gun had been stolen from the machine. Parties, whom he knew, were seen about the car during the afternoon, and he started today that unless the gun, which was a present to him and valued very highly because of this fact was not returned at once, warrants will be issued and the parties prosecuted.

Well Known Grand Detour Lady Dies

Mrs. H. C. Earl, well known and highly respected Grand Detour woman passed away at her home in that village at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, death resulting from spinal trouble with which she had suffered since last June. Funeral services will be held at the Christian church in Grand Detour at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and burial will be at the Grand Detour cemetery. An obituary will be published later.

TURN TO NATURE'S WAY FOR HEALTH

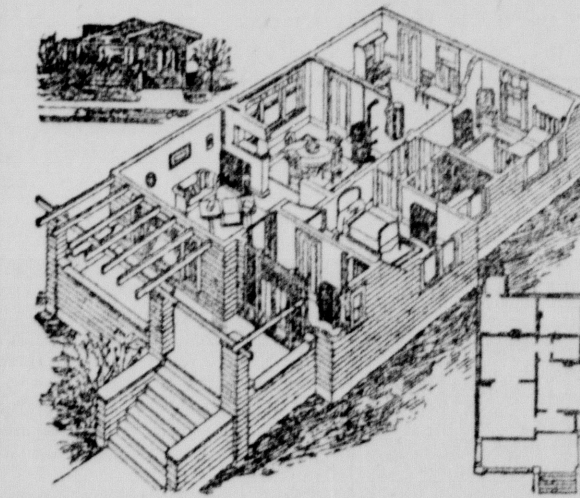

Radiator Heat now in reach of humblest homes

The introduction of the IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler made it possible to heat the small, cellarless home by means of Hot Water radiators. The whole plant is all-on-one-floor—no cellar is needed. Little attention to one fire heats the whole house with great saving of fuel. The IDEAL-Arcola outfit lasts forever—never rusts or needs repair and is sold at a price within reach of all.

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Small homes, offices, shops, stores, workrooms, etc., may now be heated all over as comfortably as a mansion. The IDEAL-Arcola is placed in one of the rooms and is operated like a stove. It heats that room. AMERICAN Radiators placed in adjoining rooms are connected to the IDEAL-Arcola by simple piping (without valves or other accessories). As soon as the fire is started circulation of hot water takes place, giving steady winter comfort with a very great saving in fuel. The IDEAL-Arcola and radiators may be painted any color to harmonize with furnishings.

Simple way of heating a six-room cellarless cottage by IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler and live AMERICAN Radiators. Ask for catalog (free showing open views of heating layouts of 4, 5, 6, and 7 room cottages, stores, shops, schools, offices, houses, banks, garages, etc.). Don't delay this coal-saving investment.

RED TAPE

"Too much red tape!" Time and again one hears that statement made.

Its users means that proceedings are being unduly obstructed through some sort of official formality. A shipping example of what too much red tape may accomplish is seen in the story of "Pigs is Pigs."

By the time all the red tape due to shipping schedules and definitions were unwound the little pigs had increased by the natural process of birth from two in a family to several thousand more or less related.

As far back as 499 years ago English lawyers and public officials tied up their briefs and legal documents with red tape. Too much red tape, clients and the public sometimes said.
Hence the local application of the term, which was so highly and accurately descriptive as to last longer than many of the documents themselves.

SPLENDID EXAMPLES

It is a good thing to stimulate the imagination of young people with tales of heroism, and if they are discouraged it is good to encourage them with examples of success after failure. But it is not good to leave the average boy or girl with the impression that he or she also must be great in the way in which these heroes were great.

Two or three boys now in school may perhaps some day become president of the United States, but not more; and if all are urged to strive for this distinction and they take the lesson to heart, it means that all but two or three are bound to be disappointed and carry through life a sense of hopeless failure. And so with other aims of the sort.

It is given to very few to be distinguished in any line, and, if all aim at distinction, nearly all must end in failure. And that means bitterness of soul after a fierce and hopeless struggle.

The bitterness is not entirely undeserved, for the desire to stand out as superior to others is not entirely generous. And even when it is gratified it cannot make one happy if it has stunted the rest of life.

One should not strive too much to be a hero. It is better simply to do one's part. Sometimes that leads to heroism of the outstanding sort. More often it does not.

Simply doing what ought to be done
and taking what comes one's way without a fuss is heroism also, and heroism is a better kind, for it reached without an applauding audience to urge one on, and success is not achieved at the expense of someone else's disappointment.

CANADA'S MINISTER

There will be no Canadian minister plenipotentiary at Washington in the near future. This much was decided at the recent visit of Sir Aukland Geddes to Canada. Geddes will continue representing Canada and other British lands.

The reason back of the withdrawal of Canada plans was the British belief that if Canada was permitted a special representative Australia and South Africa might ask for similar representation, not only at Washington but in other capitals. Also, it was thought that, granting Canada one minister, the Dominion might want representatives elsewhere.

British ambassadors will handle
British affairs, and it will not be divided among several colonial ministers. No one pretends that this will please the Canadian nationalists, and

THIS IS FOR BOSSES

Some newspapers are conducting
"Good Boss Contests" into which workers are invited to enter the names of employers who have earned their respect and affection.

Now what is a good boss? For one thing, a good boss is one who cares for the good opinion of his men and tries to earn it.

There may be extant some survivers of the old-fashioned type of boss who was fond of saying he didn't give a rap what his men thought of him.
And, in some industrial circles the belief may still obtain that the most efficient boss is the one who is most cordially disliked.

This theory springs from the false notion that it is the function of a boss to drive and crack the whip and, by earning the dislike of his men, prove that he is a good, hard driver. Men work under him, but never with such a boss—and unwilling labor is not efficient labor. A boss gets no more out of his men that what of friendliness
he puts into their hearts.

"Give me a boss," says a writer in The Lamp, "who has worked hard and accomplished much."

"Who has met the challenge of adversity with a glad smile, and listened to the flattery of success with a doubting ear."

"Who has never belittled the labor that gave him his bread, or fawned on the hand that made up the payroll."

"Give me this man for my boss and I'll not work under him, but with him."

Such a boss is the ideal of every worker. The yearning to work with,
to be more than a cog in a machine, to play a man's part is in the heart of every toiler. It is a foolish boss, an inefficient boss, who fails to give effect to this wholesome yearning.

find the best boy in town."

"Yes," says I.

"Why don't they try to find the worst?" says Si.

"Too easy," says I.

"No," says Si, "it's just the turn of the wheel. For a time the world is much concerned about the worst and then it swings to the other extreme, and is interested only in the best."

"How comes?" says I.

"When grandpa was a lad they had lots of books about good little boys," says Si.

says I.

"And now," says Si, "they're back

WHO'S TO WEAR THE HALF-HOSE?

BY O. B. JOYFUL.

While they're handing round these hero medals, my nomination for this week goes to the superintendent of schools of Shelbyville, Ind. Every heman in the country will join me, too.

Of course, progress is inevitable and all that, but some of us men have been growing uneasy at the encroachment of the female upon rights that have belonged to the male from time immemorial. When old King Ed the Third instituted the Order of the Garter, he never suspected that that useful article of feminine apparel would ever be called upon to support
—so to speak—an invasion of man's rights.

When men decided to cover their neither extremities with pants, as distinguished from tights, the sock was the natural and inevitable result.
Socks have been man's exclusive property up to the present time.

And, when the female tries to annex that article, exclusively the property of man, it is time for every red-

the entrance into the wound of germs which would produce what is ordinarily known as blood poisoning, and first-aid work must take carefully into account the danger from this source.

The surface of the skin when unbroken prevents the entrance of these germs into the body, but even the smallest break may permit them to enter and set up an infected condition.
A trifling injury may become the source of blood poisoning with gravest consequences, death having sometimes followed a scratch from an infected pin or finger nail.

URIC ACID.

Q.—Please tell me the cause of uric acid in the system.

A.—Uric acid is a normal constituent of the urine. Changes in the production and elimination of uric acid occurs in the condition known as gout.

EATING YEAST.

Q.—Can you tell me anything for or against eating yeast for health and the food value of yeast?

A.—Yeast has been used apparently with success in the treatment of a number of disorders, especially in certain diseases of the skin. While good results appear to have followed the giving of yeast in certain classes of cases, this form of treatment is by no means a specific. Moreover, it is not at all certain that the excessive use of yeast may not be harmful under certain conditions.

MALNUTRITION.

Q.—Can you tell me a method of gaining flesh? I am 5 ft. 4 in., age 21, and only weight 110 pounds. I am in perfect health otherwise.

A.—It is not possible to say definitely just why you are so thin. It is not always a question of diet. If you will send your name and address to Information Editor, Public Health Service, Washington, D. C., will send you

FIRST AID: PREVENTION OF IN-FECTION.

One of the most important points in first-aid work is preventing a wound from becoming infected. It is natural to stop a hemorrhage when one sees a person bleeding to death and to relieve pain when the victim shows evidences of suffering, but there is nothing present in the case of an accident to remind one of danger from infection.

Often the first thing a person will do for one who is injured, after having stopped the flow of blood and making the injured person as comfortable as possible under the circumstances, is to wash the injured part with water, which under certain conditions would be the worst thing that could be done.

It is far better to leave the wound exposed to the air than to wash it in contaminated water, as there is slight danger of contamination to be feared from the air, in which pus germs do not float, so that infection can not be carried to a wound in this manner unless the air be full of dust.

In accidents which involve the breaking or cutting of the skin it is of the utmost importance to prevent

THE BOOK OF ANN.

MOTHER AND I ENJOY OUR WORK IN ANN'S KITCHEN.

"You'd think the world was coming to an end just because some women can not get enough help to run the service end of their homes," said Mother Lorimer, as we arranged a frozen dessert on chilled silver dishes.

"Never has it been so difficult for housekeepers with big incomes to get the help required to run a well-ordered establishment."

"And they're so indignant—that it's funny," I observed. "It doesn't seem to occur to them that they might do a little of the work themselves! Why, our experience in cooking Ann's luncheon today makes me feel like a real human being!" I declared (as the girl disappeared through the dining room door with the last plate.

"I must own that I'm awfully tired Jane," said mother.

"You need your tea. Let's have our lunch here—on this charming white enamel glass-covered kitchen table
—fit for a king!"

So down we sat to a most excellent meal. I felt like telephoning to Bob to join us, but mother needed her tea immediately.

"I've been thinking of what young Mrs. Johnson said yesterday," said Mother Lorimer. "She came to see me and she bragged at some length about her own success in keeping her help."

"What is her magic?" I asked.
"Money is not enough, nowadays!"
"It seems that the cook expects Mrs. Johnson to lunch at the club two or three times a week."

"An absolute fact," insisted mother.

"Mother, I wish all these city women, who think the world is coming to an end because they have to work a little, could be forced to see what the farm women are up against. They're getting up at 5 a. m., and they're working more than 13 hours, in summer time. I heard Willie Van Eyck telling about it the other day. She owns a farm, you know. She isn't well, so her father gave it to her, as a kind of plaything. And now she spend all of her summers there—she sees how the wives of the farmers have to work. But she is so excited about it that next winter she is going to begin a course at an agricultural college!"

"The world is changing in ways we can hardly follow, my dear. Many women who have been trained to work are soldiering on their jobs. And many others who are privileged to do nothing, have chosen strenuous careers!"

"Like Deborah Burns and Willie Van Eyck!" I suggested.

"And like Jane Lorimer!" said
mother, as she rose from the table, and deposited a little kiss on my forehead.

"Working is such fun, for me!" I explained.

Then said mother:
"It could be fun for most of us, if we would look at it so!"

Not For Him

MAYOR OF CORK'S FAST OF 73 DAYS IS ENDED BY HIS DEATH

The story of the self-starvation of Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, probably will become one of the most moving chapters of the century—long history of the Irish struggle. No other controversy has stirred Great Britain so deeply as this since the one that centered upon Cecil Rhodes, when the Jameson raid was balked by Paul Kruger and the raiders imprisoned.

The campaign in England for MacSwiney's release from prison has been apart from all political and party considerations and even the King was drawn into it. The movement in MacSwiney's behalf was mainly humanitarian and enlisted tender-hearted people of all factions but was urged by others with arguments of party strategy.

"MacSwiney dead and canonized in the hearts of the Irish people with Wolf Tone and the Manchester martyrs would be a more valuable asset to the Sinn Fein MacSwiney alive and, even though a free pass to freedom for MacSwiney might weaken the government's hand, why help the separatist cause by giving it a martyr?" were the arguments put forward even by British unionists.

"Stand by the law and do not create a precedent which would make the will of a convicted rebel the decisive factor in determining whether he shall be punished," was the argument of the stand fast faction. A majority of the British papers including the London Times and the liberal press, the labor unionists, and many members of both parties in Parliament joined in the agitation for MacSwiney's release.

Two notable controversies, one constitutional and the other theological, have arisen from the case. The first was whether King George could properly exercise his pardoning prerogative independently of or against the advice of his ministers. The second was whether the Catholic clergy, representing a church which holds guidance to be a crime consistently administer the sacraments to hunger strikers. The King's reply through the Secretary of State for War, to the petition of members of Parliament was generally interpreted to mean that the King's personal leaning was toward granting a pardon. But, since Premier Lloyd George and the Foreign Minister, A. Bonar Law, were at the time issuing arguments against clemency for the Lord Mayor, it was evident that any action in that direction by the King would be against the advice of his ministers.

The newspapers published many editorials and letters setting forth, one hand, that King George should not be embarrassed by direct appeals to him and, on other hand, that he should and had the right to exercise his nominal constitutional power of pardon.

The Weekly Nation, which is one of the most advanced liberal organs and not generally rated as a supporter of monarchy, argued that this was an occasion for the King to vindicate his constitutional right and protect the country against the growing autocracy of the cabinet.

There were many other arguments to the same effect, one historical writer, combating the theory that King George always had been a cipher in such matters, exhorted a new story in the annals of British monarchy, telling how George IV described by Thackeray as weakest and least admirable character in the line of British Kings, used to pace the council chamber with tears pleading for the pardon of criminals and sometimes carry his point, although once when he wrote to the Viceroy of Ireland granting pardon to a murderer he was compelled by his cabinet to cancel his edict.

One of the chief reasons put forward by MacSwiney's advocates, although advocated from anti-Sinn Fein quarters, was that the offenses of which MacSwiney was convicted were so comparatively light they did not justify his suffering even though voluntarily. Premier Lloyd George's reply was that MacSwiney undoubtedly was a high officer of the "Irish Republican army," which decreed and executed murders of officials and police in Ireland. The Republican army, unlike the Sinn Fein, is purely a secret organization. The identity of its officers and personnel is kept from the public and there is doubt even whether the Sinn Fein controls it or officially knows its workings.

The theological argument over the course of Bishop Cullen and MacSwiney's chaplain, the Rev. Father Dominic, in, as critics say, encouraging him to commit suicide, was largely biblical. The Rev. Father Bernard Vaughn, was the only priest who publicly criticized them. A lecture which he was to deliver in Glasgow, a center of labor unionism had to be cancelled on account of the unpopularity his words brought upon him.

The human aspect of the Lord Mayor's hunger strike was the one that chiefly interested British people and compelled the sympathy of even his hardest political enemies. Mrs. MacSwiney and his brothers and sisters were treated everywhere with respect and on their side had nothing but good to say of the jailers and police with whom they had to deal.

Any way out of MacSwiney's imprisonment except his death would have been welcomed by the whole but his family were as firm as MacSwiney in refusing to listen to any end except release or death. There can be no doubt the Irish republicans believed MacSwiney had given their cause the most valuable service in his power and that, like John Brown "he will trouble you more than ever when you have nailed his coffin down."

THE WIDOW AND HER BABY

of the Defence of the Realm Act, he was found guilty of sedition and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which he was serving in Brixton Prison in London.

MacSwiney, then an Alderman of Cork, was elected Lord Mayor of the city at a special session of the Cork Corporation on March 30 of this year.

He was a well-known Sinn Fein leader and, prior to his election, had been deported and imprisoned several times of the latest notable instances of his confinement having been in 1916 in connection with the Irish Easter revolt.

When arrested on August 12, MacSwiney managed to escape to the street from the back of the City Hall, which soldiers had surrounded, but was captured outside. He was taken to the military barracks and came up for trial on August 16. The court-martial found him guilty of having control of the secret police cipher, of having in his possession a document likely to cause disaffection, namely, a copy of a resolution of the Cork Corporation pledging allegiance to the Dail Eireann, the Irish Republican Parliament, and of having made a seditious speech on the occasion of his election.

Already weak at the trial because of his refusal to take food, MacSwiney disputed the jurisdiction of the court, saying: "I am the lord mayor of this city and its chief magistrate. I declare this court illegal and those taking part in it liable to arrest under the laws of the Irish republic."

The day following his trial, Lord Mayor MacSwiney was deported to England aboard a destroyer, under a heavy military escort and was lodged in Brixton jail. The government announced on August 19 that he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

MacSwiney's hunger strike brought numerous solicitations and protests to the British authorities, many of the appeals being from sympathizers in the United States. Even a threat from the Sinn Fein in Ireland that, in the event of his death, a general strike and serious disturbances would prevail throughout the island. An appeal was taken directly to the King but this also proved unavailing.

During his imprisonment, the Lord Mayor received numerous messages of encouragement and also petitions to abandon his strike. He replied to the latter that if he gave up his fight he would "give away Irish liberty," and that he would "rather die than do that."

Replying to reports that sustenance was being given Mayor MacSwiney, the British Home Office declared "if he is being fed we do not know it," while members of MacSwiney's family denied categorically that food had been given him.

Peter MacSwiney, of New York, a brother of the Lord Mayor, is an official of the American Commission for Irish Independence.

Was Given Some Food

Within the past week, when it began to appear that the Lord Mayor was approaching the end, he was given liquid nourishment by the prison doctors during periods of unconsciousness. This fact appeared in statements by both the Irish Self-Determination League, which had been issuing regular bulletins on MacSwiney's condition, and by the home office. The League's statement showed the Lord Mayor as becoming extremely indignant upon regaining consciousness and realizing that he had been fed.

"They tricked me, and I didn't know it," he exclaimed.

The League's bulletin on Oct. 21 contained this statement:

"It should be made clear that the meat extract given the Lord Mayor during his delirium on the sixty-ninth day of his fast was the first nourishment which had passed his lips since his arrest on Aug. 12."

With regard to the theological aspects of the Lord Mayor's hunger strike and that of the Irish prisoners in the Cork jail, it was stated in a Rome dispatch on Oct. 17 that Pope Benedict had referred the problem of the status of these hunger striking prisoners to the congregation of the Holy office.

The first death among the hunger strikers occurred on Sunday, Oct. 17, when Michael Fitzgerald, one of the 11 striking prisoners in the Cork jail, succumbed to the results of his self imposed fast. He had fasted sixty-eight days. Several other of the Cork prisoners are declared now to be in a critical state.

PARTIES are responsible for conditions in America, not persons. We depend upon a party to promote progress, remedy evils and give efficiency in the public service. Persons can do neither. A vote for a party is a vote that will count. A vote for a person is a wasted vote.

In Tuesday's election the issue is one between a party and a person—between Republicanism and Wilsonism. Every vote cast for any Republican candidate will be an endorsement of Republican principles. Every vote cast against any Republican candidate will be an endorsement of Wilson policies and practices.

Republican principles mean the maintenance of American independence; protection of American labor, husbandry and industry; economy in the expenditure of public money; reduced taxes; efficiency in the public service in nation, state and county; stability of American institutions and consequent prosperity and progress.

Wilson policies and practices have been for surrender of American independence to a super-state League of Nations; free trade and protection of profiteering; extravagance and waste in spending the people's money and high taxes; caring for "deserving Democrats" in the public service; social, commercial and industrial unrest.

Lincoln, greatest of Republicans, said, "A house divided against itself cannot stand." Team work gets the best results. Harmony between the executive and the legislative branches of government in both state and nation is essential to real achievement. To vote the straight Republican ticket is to vote for harmony and team work in the public service. To "scratch" a ballot is to endorse turmoil and inefficiency.

Women of Illinois have attained full citizenship. The Republican party was the chief instrument in giving it to them. With men just come of age they are "first voters." For all these the "scratched" ballot has fatal pit-falls. The one sure way, and the easiest, to make their first full vote count is to mark a cross in the Republican party circle.

For a new deal at Washington; for harmony and continued efficiency in state government; for the success of Republican principles, take no chances.

Republican men and women, voters of all faiths opposed to Wilson, to accomplish this, vote on Tuesday, Nov. 2, and—

D. H. S. LOST HARD GAME: LEGION ELEVEN WINNER

DROP KICK IN LAST THREE MINUTES BEAT LOCAL HIGH ELEVEN

Locals Outplayed Rivals Until Break Went to Visitors.

The Dixon High school football team went down to a 3 to 0 defeat by the hands of Sterling High at Brown field Saturday. Angle of Sterling making a drop-kick from the 25-yard line with three minutes left to play, spelled defeat for Dixon. Although won the game the Dixon lads outplayed them throughout the contest. Sterling made only 4 first downs in the entire game but the later part of the last quarter Kiefer of Sterling broke through the Dixon line for 20 yards placing the ball on Dixon's 25-yard line and, after two unsuccessful attempts to penetrate Dixon's line Angle dropped back and did the trick, becoming Sterling's hero. The game was an excellent exhibition of foot ball throughout, being devoid of the usual wrangling that is so customary when these two rivals meet. Sterling out-weighted Dixon but the fast drive of the locals off-set the weight handicap.

Harold Jones will put Dementtown back on the map if he performs in the future like he did Saturday, the diminutive half back making gain after gain through Sterling's line. This is "Tuffies" first appearance in the backfield. Haley, substituting at quarter for Captain Jones (out because of an injured ankle) played an exceptionally good game, both in carrying the ball and using judgment in calling signals. Waggoner lived up to his reputation, tearing off gain after gain and was a demon on the defense. "Biscuits" Mahan held down his pivot position in fine style, tearing through and making many tackles. Quarterback Turnroth of Sterling was the mainstay of the Sterling team. This lad is full of fight and carries the ball well. Kiefer tore off several good gains.

The game: Dixon won the toss choosing to defend the west goal. SETTLE TERMS FOR DEMPSEY CARPENTIER GO Fighters Will Meet in January or June Next Year.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Oct. 25.—Terms for a boxing bout for the world's heavy-weight championship between Jack Dempsey, the title holder and Georges Carpentier, the French pugilist, have been virtually agreed upon, Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, announced last night. Kearns said a "final conference" of interested parties would be held on Tuesday or Wednesday and added he was confident the agreement would be signed before Carpentier leaves the United States a week from next Saturday.

It was reported the bout would be held in the United States, probably in Madison Square Garden, New York, and that the date would be either in January or June 1921. Kearns said the match had been virtually assured by a series of conferences held here within the past few days, attended by himself, Francois Descamps, Carpentier's manager; Tex Rickard, the Madison Square Garden promoter; William A. Brady, theatrical producer and Charles B. Cochran, an English sporting promoter.

COACH DIXON'S TEAM TOO SPEEDY FOR MEN FROM 11TH ARTILLERY

Soldiers Defeated 27 to 0 in Fast Game Here Yesterday.

Playing their second game of the season the Dixon American Legion completely outclassed the 11th Field Artillery from Camp Grant at the Brown field Sunday afternoon. Playing a wonderful game from start to finish, the Legion team showed splendid improvement. Clark Hess, in his initial appearance with the Legion team, played a remarkable game. His running, dodging and squirming tactics were responsible for many good gains and not once during the afternoon was he thrown for a loss. On 15 chances he made gains totalling 135 yards, and scored two of the four touchdowns.

Story of Game.
Camp Grant won the toss and chose to defend the west goal.
The Legion kicked off to the soldiers' 10-yard line, the ball being returned 15 yards. The soldiers made two yards through center, then lost their gain on a fumble and followed this with a punt of 40 yards. Vaughn taking the punt and being thrown in his tracks.

Hess made eight yards around left end, making it first down. Vaughn went through right tackle for 6 yards; Hess one yard around left end and Gorham circled right end for two yards and then made it first down again. Vaughn shot a forward pass to Allen for 12 yards. The Legion was penalized five yards for being offside. A forward pass was incomplete. Hess made four yards through left tackle, Vaughn then failed in an attempt to drop kick a goal.

It was the soldiers' ball on their 20-yard line. They made two yards through center, then fumbled and lost their gain, they also fumbled on the next play but recovered and made nine yards for offside. In an attempt to punt the ball was blocked and recovered by Wallace who raced 10 yards for the first touchdown. Dixon kicked goal. Score: Legion 7, Soldiers 0.

The soldiers kicked off to Dixon's 20-yard line, Vaughn receiving the ball and returned it 11 yards. Gorham punted 30 yards and the soldier was down in his tracks. The soldiers fumbled on their first play, Dixon recovered the ball and got away for eight yards. Vaughn made a round right end. The ball was within a few feet of the north boundary line and was caught and purposely made out of bounds so the ball could be brought further inside the line. Hess tore around right end with a brilliant run for the second touchdown. Vaughn kicked goal. Score: Legion 14, Soldiers 0.

The artillerymen kicked off to the Legion's 10-yard line, Vaughn returning it 12 yards. Gorham went through center for five yards and then three more by the same route. The first quarter ended with the ball in the Legion's possession and on their own 45-yard line.

Second Quarter.
It was the third down with one yard to go for the first down. Vaughn went through center for two yards and the first down. Gorham punted 40 yards, the ball being out of bounds on the soldiers' 10-yard line. The Camp Grant boys made no gain on their first play and then punted 20 yards to Gorham, who returned five yards. Gorham raced around right end for 30 yards and a touchdown. Dixon then kicked goal, making the score 21 to 0.

The soldiers kicked off to the 30-yard line, the ball not being advanced. Hess circled left end and nine and one-half yards. Vaughn failed to gain and the Legion was penalized 15 yards for roughness. Gorham punted to 40 yards and the soldier was downed in his tracks. A forward pass failed for the soldiers. Hess intercepted another pass and made 10 yards.

13 Eggs A Day From 17 Young Pullets
Mrs. Niles Starts 6 months Old Pullets Laying. Tells How.

"Early in November, I bought a package of Don Sung and started giving it to 17 May's pullets. In the next 30 days they laid 188 lovely eggs. All through December I got 13 to 15 eggs a day. Niles, R. F. D. 2, Lucas, Ind.

"I have found how to start young pullets laying and keep them laying all winter. The same method helps hens through the moult, and starts them laying. You can test this at our risk. Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail, Burdett-Digger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

DECATUR TEAMS SET GOALS FOR GRIDIRON TITLE

Three Teams Have Visions of Capturing High Honors.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Decatur, Ill., Oct. 25.—Three titles in football is the goal of Decatur eleven this season and two of them have more than an even chance to win the honors.

James Mullikin University, by defeating Augustana Saturday, 7 to 0, about settled the 1920 race in the Illinois inter-collegiate athletic conference, while Coach Muir's red and white high school eleven put university High of Normal out of the running in their game and will meet Peoria Central here Friday in a contest that will carry with it the Central Illinois title and give the winner a good claim to state honors.

George Halas and his Staley professional team is the third organization and their defeat of the strong Rock Island Independents at Rock Island, Oct. 17 and their victory over the strong Chicago Tigers in the Windy City put them in the running for the national pro honors.

tercepted another pass and made 10 yards.

The Legion was penalized five yards for offside play. Hess made one yard around right end. Vaughn made a touch to Dixon for 15 yards for first down. A pass incomplete; Vaughn hit center for ten yards and two more through right tackle. Hess broke away for another touchdown around left end from the 10-yard line. Vaughn failed to kick goal, the half ending with the score standing 27 to 0 in the Legion's favor.

Third Quarter.
The soldiers kicked off to the Legion's 30-yard line, Hess returning it 10 yards. Vaughn went through center for four yards, Hess making it first down around left end. Gorham made five yards through left tackle; Hess 15 yards around left end, a forward pass to Hess netted five yards, another pass incomplete. Gorham passed to Vaughn for ten yards; another forward pass was incomplete back of the soldiers' goal and it was their ball on their 20-yard line.

The artillerymen made one yard through center; no gain on the next play; a forward pass netted 15 yards and the first down. This was the first time that the soldiers were able to make first down. They made two yards through left tackle, then one yard through center, and on the next play were penalized five yards for being offside; the soldiers then punted 30 yards to Hess who returned the ball five yards. Vaughn made seven yards around right end, Allen accepted a forward pass for 15 yards gain; forward pass incomplete; Hess took the next pass for a 20-yard gain. The Legion at this point were only seven yards from the goal. Vaughn made one yard through center. Gorham tore through center but fumbled the ball and the soldiers recovered. It about a foot from their goal. The soldiers punted 20 yards. Gorham fumbled the punt and Rockford recovered on their 18-yard line, concluding the third quarter, the score being Legion 27, Camp Grant 0.

Fourth Quarter.
The soldiers lost one yard, then made it us through center; they punted 30 yards and Hess returned the ball 10 yards. Vaughn fumbled on the first play and the soldiers recovered. A forward pass netted the soldiers eight yards; forward pass incomplete; one yard gain through center; they made it first down through the same place. The soldiers seemed to be taking a brace and were advancing the ball nicely; they made two yards around left end, two more the same way; forward pass incomplete; the ball was punted 20 yards, was touched on the bounce by a Legion player and then was covered by the soldiers on the Legion's 30-yard line. The soldiers failed to gain on their first play; a forward made it first down, two yards was made through center; forward pass incomplete; soldiers penalized five yards for off side; they failed to gain on an end run half way across the field. It was the Legion's ball on their own 19-yard line. The Legion made 10 yards on an outside kick and the game was over.

LOST $250 IN BASKET OF APPLES.
Elkhart, Ind.—Howard Congdon hid $250 in a basket of apples when he drove to town. He sold that basket and a score more, and then thought of his money. Although he back-tracked and looked at a lot of the baskets he was not able to find one containing the money.

"IT'S BEST EVER MADE," HE STATES

Gained Twenty-two Pounds and Friends Remark on His Pig Improvement.

"I am not only feeling like a different person since taking Tanlac but have also gained twenty-two pounds in weight," said Norval McDonald, of 852 Ninth street, Springfield, Ill.

"My stomach was terribly upset, and after eating everything seemed to ferment, bloating me all up with gas and causing me all kinds of misery. My appetite was so poor I had to force down the little I did eat, and I was losing in weight right along. My color became very bad, and I had such awful headaches that at times it seemed like my head would burst open. My kidneys bothered me a great deal, and my back ached until I could hardly stand it. At night I could scarcely sleep, and I was in such a weak, run-down condition that at times I simply had to lay off from my work."

"I consider the money I spent for Tanlac the best investment I ever made, for I started improving before I had even finished the first bottle. After taking three bottles I'm enjoying the best of health again. I have a fine appetite, and everything agrees with me so well that I've gained back all my lost weight, and my twenty-two pounds besides. My color is good and I don't have those awful headaches any more. My kidneys no longer bother me and my back is entirely free from pain. My sleep is good and sound and refreshing and I always get up in the morning rested and full of energy. All my friends are remarking about how well I'm looking."

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by the Public Drug & Book Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's beauty days. It is a simple and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the other application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains every month so bad that I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and he took me to the drug store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash I could do my own housework. If it had not been for my medicine I don't know where I would be to-day and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. You may wish some other woman."—Mrs. MARY STENDER, 120 Orange St., Wyandotte, Mich.

"FEAR NOT, LUCK IS COMING TO YOU"

That's what Arithm-a-letta told Walter Mails, Cleveland's sensational young southpaw, before he blanked Brooklyn in the recent World Series. He got that answer out of the "Luck" circle.

"YOUR BUSINESS WILL INCREASE"

A great editor got the above message from the "Business" circle the first time he consulted Arithm-a-letta.

If you want to know how to get messages on BUSINESS, LUCK, WISHERS, WEALTH and MARRIAGE from Arithm-a-letta for yourself and your friends, watch The Telegraph.

Arithm-a-letta, the new plaything of the nation, will be printed exclusively in the Telegraph with COMPLETE directions on how to use it. Watch for it.

SHE SAYS HE STOLE HER PSYCHIC POWER.

Los Angeles.—Is it possible to steal psychic power? Frances Alethia Head says it is and she is suing Alexander Dilapoulos, a former husband, for $50,000, claiming he is using her "stuff."

GRAVEL SPARK SETS FIRE TO COTTON.

Spokane.—A bit of gravel got in the machinery at the Harmon Manufacturing Company and set fire to some cotton.
